

Forest Hills Cemetery and Forest Hills Educational Trust present

EARNING RAVE REVIEWS: OLD-TIME THEATER AND MUSIC AT FOREST HILLS WALKING TOUR

Sunday, June 23rd – 2 pm
Forest Hills Cemetery
with Historian Dee Morris
Meet at the Front Gate.

Wear Comfortable Shoes and Bring Water.

Admission: $12 day of tour or $10 Advance Tickets at www.foresthillscemetery.eventbrite.com

Victorians loved to be entertained! Fannie Davenport (1850-1898), a very popular actress, thrilled audiences with her intense interpretation of Shakespeare and other classics. Another Boston idol, Ned Kendall (1808-1861), was a virtuoso on the keyed bugle. Marching bands often played soul-stirring hymns here to commemorate local heroes. Join us for a modern salute to yesterday's performance artists.

