VICTORIAN Spiritualists believed that they could communicate with those had "passed away". Forest Hills Cemetery is the final resting place of a number of these unique Bostonians. They include:

Frances Conant (1831-1875), a popular Medium,

Luther Colby (1814-1894), and

William Berry (1825-1862), editors of the Banner of Light.

After the lecture, we will visit their eternal homes.
